NIH Confidentiality and Non-Disclosure Rules: Information for Reviewers of NIH Grant Applications

The applications and proposals, associated materials made available to reviewers, information and materials related to the recruitment process and reviewers, reviewers' evaluations, and discussion that takes place during review meetings, are strictly confidential and must not be disclosed to or discussed with any individual who has not been officially designated to participate in the review process. In addition, disclosure of procurement information prior to the award of a contract is prohibited by the Procurement Integrity Act.

Reviewers must certify that they will maintain the confidentiality of the proceedings and associated material, and that they will not disclose any matter or information related to the recruitment or review proceedings.

Certification

I certify that I have read the "NIH Confidentiality and Non-Disclosure Rules: Information for Reviewers of NIH Grant Applications" above. Under penalty of perjury (18 U.S.C. §1001), I certify that I fully understand the confidential nature of the reviewer recruitment and NIH peer review process and agree:

- (1) to destroy or return all materials related to applications or proposals, associated materials made available to reviewers, information and materials related to the recruitment process and reviews, reviewers' evaluations, and discussions during review meetings;
- (2) not to disclose or discuss the applications or proposals, associated materials made available to reviewers, information and materials related to the recruitment process and reviews, reviewers' evaluations, and discussions during review meetings with any other individual except as authorized by the Scientific Review Officer (SRO) or other designated NIH official;
- (3) not to disclose procurement information prior to the award of a contract; and
- (4) to refer all inquiries concerning the recruitment or review to the SRO or other designated NIH official.
